TRUNK SHOWS AND DEMOS: Come to the room along the west wall to enjoy a trunk show by our last year's Best of Show winner, Marilyn Hoelsher. Demo's will be offered during the show by members and vendors. Contacts: Joyce Ketterling, Darlene Huettl, Dixie Knappen-Mitzel, and Bev Peterson

VENDORS: Vendors from local shops and as far away as Texas, Arizona and California will be at the show offering a variety of quilting supplies and quilting-related products. Vendor booths will be open during show hours. Contact: Marie Brewer

SILENT AUCTION: This is an auction to benefit the Hospice House and include several SQOs (Small Quilted Objects). These objects can be almost anything, but the size needs to be smaller than a baby quilt (sorry, but display space is at a premium). More items are needed and must be in hand by Tuesday, June 8. The auction actually starts on Wednesday, June 9 (prior to the quilt show) in the hospital lobby. Contact Shari West Twitero to donate objects or ask questions.

UFO's: The show is a great reason to drag out your unfinished projects and get them done! Don't forget to submit your UFO forms (available on the BHQG website) to Rosa Lea Grav. Small prizes and a traveling trophy is at stake!

SALE OF QUILTS to benefit Project Warmth. Approximately 350 quilts are made and given away by the Guild each year. The quilts offered for sale at the Quilt Show help pay for supplies (and are very good deals for you!) If you would like to make a donation of a quilt or quilting related item, Contact: Susan Corbin.

SALE OF QUILTS and quilted items made by guild members. Maker sets firm price and guild receives a percentage. Contact: Nyla Christensen and Elaine Braa.

RAFFLE QUILT DRAWING: The winner of the guild's 2010 quilt will be drawn Sunday afternoon. This queen-sized quilt was pieced by guild members and longarm quilted by Lauri Tigner. Tickets will be on sale at the show until the drawing.

GOODIE BASKET RAFFLE: Tickets will be sold during the show, winning ticket will be drawn on Sunday. Basket features Fat Quarters of Batiks and hand-dyes, new quilting notions and other wonderful items. To donate items for the basket, contact Darlene Geboe.

QUILTS IN THE COMMUNITY: Downtown merchants will display quilts and posters about the show in their windows in May. Contact: Mary Ann Thornburg.

QUILT SHOW CHAIRPERSON: Rebecca Smith

As with most really great events, the result is achieved thru the combined efforts of many people. Thank you to all the members who have taken a committee or worked on one, entered quilts or helped in other ways. Rebecca
