2008 QUILT SHOW A BIG SUCCESS!!!

Well, we did it again! Over 600 beautiful quilts on display at this year's show. A huge thank-you to everyone who helped with the show, the downtown displays, the banquet, and all of the other numerous areas related to making the show such a success.

Thanks go to all who helped sew the sheets, which I think really improved the set-up and look of the show. Thanks to all the "super guys" who helped haul boxes to and from the storage unit and helped with the set-up and tear-down tasks. Thanks to Lily Mitchell for making all the pin-cushion rings for the banquet. Thanks to all the volunteers who helped with everything. And many thanks to the vendors, sponsors, quilt makers and show attendees..... well, just THANK YOU EVERYONE!!!

It was so much fun chairing the show, I will be doing it again next year. Most committees for 2009 have volunteers but if you would like to help, please let me know. I look forward to working with everyone this next year and to another wonderful show in 2009.

I would also like to thank everyone for the two fun years as your fearless Vice-President.

See you Tuesday!
Rebecca Smith

Editor's Note: Thanks to Rebecca for all the fat quarters and center pieces at the banquet! Also, see the list of this year's vendors and sponsors on page 7.

BLACK HILLS QUILT SHOW 2009

June 12, 13, and 14

Quilt Registration Deadline: May 5, 2009

Quilt Check-In: June 10, 2009

THE HOSPICE AUCTION

Thank you, thank you, thank you to all who participated in the Hospice silent auction. We had a banner year this year with over $2300 in purchases and over $2500 in total donations. I especially want to thank all you quilters/donors: Joanne Anderson, Marilyn Bates, Pattie Black, Dorothy Borelson, Celia Bradley, Nyla Christensen, Carol Doyle, Doris Fritts, Darlene Geboe, Rosa Lea Grav, Janet Gunn, Judy Haas, Gwynn Hansen, Ginger Jahner, Joyce Ketterling, Joan Kettlewell, Rose Kooiman (and Wes Cvach) of Dakota Cabin Quilts, Julie Lantis, Karen Lipp, Kathy Lorch, Lois Massa, Johnnie Meeks, Lily Mitchell, Dorothy Pepper, Bev Peterson, Claudia Randall (the bead lady from Dupree), Marge Redman, Rebecca Smith, Shirley Souci, Jean Stenberg, Linda Sunding, Mary Ann Thornburg, Shari West Twitero. Thanks, too, to my helper bees: Bonnie Jenniges, Rosa Lea Grav, my mom DeAun West, Janet Harms, Michelle Dennis, and Bev Peterson. Betty Richardson gets a special nod because if she hadn't been out there nearly tripping those people at the hospital to get them to buy raffle tickets, we wouldn't have gotten off to such a great start! To those of you who purchased items, woo-hoo what a rowdy ending! Just want you to know that I meant what I said: it might be a tax deduction, but for sure it's "stars in your crown" to support this worthy cause.

Shari West-Twitero

UFO CHALLENGE

What a fantastic quilt show! Such a gathering of talent and dedication. Our UFO Challenge had 64 finished registrations and 40 of those entered in the show. Way to go quilters!

The challenge continues for 2009. I would like to welcome co-chairs Rene Suiter and Rosa Lea Grav who will help with next year's challenge. The new UFO contracts will be out in September.

Just a thought – if each member completes just one UFO we could have more than 230 entries for next year's show.

Happy Quilting!
Ginger, Rene and Rosa Lea

AND MORE THANKS

A special thank you to all who helped my Registration Committee and there were many of you. Thank you to those who registered the quilts on Wednesday, to Bev Peterson for her expertise in releasing the quilts to their owners at the end of the show on Sunday and to the many runners for their help at this time, to Barb, Glenda, Jean and Nyla for making the computer signs for the 500+ quilts, to Ginger for taking the flyers to most of the campgrounds in the area, and to the local shop owners who willingly gave out the registration forms to their patrons and collected quilts from some of those who live out of town. I could never have done my job without each and every one of you!

Carol Doyle

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dear Members:

Thank you for electing me as your President for the upcoming year. I'm so looking forward to it. So far, no big plans or changes that I can see so if you have some suggestions that would be a benefit to the guild, please give me a call. Know that we're all much relaxed after the GREAT quilt show and isn't it fun to be starting to think about what we'll have for next year. See you on Tuesdays!!

Happy Quilting,
Celia

A Note from our Past President

Dear Friends,

Thanks for the ride! And also the lovely wooden box and frame! They will be forever treasured. I want to praise you for being such "smooth" women! Our guild flows through each year almost seamlessly. Everyone seems to know what to do and when to do it. Thanks for all your help and support!

I look forward to more fun times!
Darlene

New Officers

The election of officers was held at the June meeting. The new and returning officers are:

President: Celia Bradley
Vice President: Bev Peterson
Recording Secretary: Judy Haas
Corresponding Secretary: Joyce Crooks
Treasurer: Charlotte Schoonover

PROJECT WARMTH

Project Warmth sold 24 quilts at the show. I find that amazing as I only brought in 23. Gwen Hansen got the last bid on the hand-pieced quilt top; her cousin, Julie Baker, won the PW Raffle Quilt and I believe it, along with Julie, is on its way to Australia.

PW Quilts given for the fiscal year July 2007 through June 2008 – a total of 270.

Children's Home: 16	Fire/Flood: 23
Pediatric's: 159	WAVI: 17
Youth/Family Services: 49	Hospice: 2
Meals-on-Wheels: 1	Special Requests: 3

July Work Day will be at the Journey Museum on July 28. I will arrange for material to be picked up and brought in along with a number of "kits." The Guild will send out for pizza for lunch – bring anything that you think goes with pizza. See you between 9:30 and 10:00 a.m.

Thanks to all sewers, long and short-arm quilters, and those with a handy needle for all the work you did this past year. I am SO proud of you all.

Susan Corbin

STITCHES AND STROKES

We extend a very big Thank You Very Much to all of the quilters who sewed sleeves on and submitted quilts for the "Stitches and Strokes" exhibit at the Journey Museum. The show runs until August 8. The show has received very good comments from viewers at the museum. You all did a great job of making us look good.

from the committee for the Stitches and Strokes show,
Judy Haas, Vicki Gose, Darlene Huettl, Joyce Ketterling, Jean
Stenberg, Joyce Crooks

OTHER SHOWS AND EVENTS

Nebraska State Quilt Guild Convention

The Nebraska State Quilt Guild presents "Stars Over the Pine Ridge," its 2008 convention, scheduled for July 24-27, 2008, on the Chadron State College campus in Chadron, NE. The convention will star both national and member teachers such as John Flynn, Linda Potter, Becky Goldsmith, Aie Rossman, Ami Simms, Marsha McCloskey, M'Liss Rae Hawley, Mary Sue Suit, Judy Woodworth and Bobbie Aug conducting a Quilt History Day on Thursday. The convention also features a quilt show, shopping mall, challenge quilts, banquet and fun. For more information and membership requirements, please see our website www.nsqg.org.

Centennial Quilt Guild Show

The Centennial Quilt Guild in Winner, SD is having their quilt show on August 31-September 1 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Sunday and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday. On Saturday, August 30, starting at 4 p.m., there will be a preview of quilts with a trunk show and dessert. The cost of the Saturday event is $7.50. The entrance fee for the quilt show on Sunday and Monday is $5.00. For further information contact Glenda at 605-460-3505.

MISCELLANEOUS

I would like to thank all of you who sent cards and heart blocks, and to the guild for the card and fat quarters, following my accident in April. I really appreciated hearing from you. I also want to express my gratitude to Angela Marcos who very generously stepped up to the plate to produce the May/June newsletter for me (for us!). Thank you all!!!
